

ACCESS TO HOUSING AND RIGHTS

FOR ROMA, SINTI AND CAMINANTI PEOPLE

Thursday 13 JANUARY 2022 9am – 1pm

The conference, which concludes the European project R-HOME (Rome: Housing, Opportunities, Mobilization and Empowerment) cofunded by the REC Programme of the EU, aims to present the housing situation of the Roma, Sinti and Caminanti people, through the results of a research on the housing situation and the analysis of empowerment projects and programs carried out in 5 countries of the European Union: Hungary, Romania, Italy, France, Spain.

PROGRAMME

9:15 Institutional welcome – Department of Sociology and Social Studies Università Milano Bicocca – Caritas Ambrosiana – Municipality of Milano

9:40 The Project “R-HOME - Roma: Housing, Opportunities, Mobilisation and Empowerment” - Chiara Lucchin, Caritas Ambrosiana

10:00 Discrimination and housing deprivation of Roma people in European cities - Tommaso Vitale, Sciences Po, CEE, Paris

10:40 Mutual learning on Roma housing and participation - Aniko Bernat, TARKI Tarsadalomkutatasi Intezet Zrt, Budapest

11:15 Video-Documentary

11:30 Roma empowerment - Annabel Carballo, Federación de Asociaciones Gitanas de Cataluña, Barcelona

12:00 Acknowledging housing rights: some recommendations to the EU Commission- Patrizia Farina, Università degli Studi di Milano-Bicocca

12:30 Debate and conclusions

---

The conference will be held exclusively online

Registration is mandatory <https://bit.ly/R-HOME>

All subscribers will be sent the link to follow the live streaming